Monday Morning Update

January 23 - 29

Good Monday Morning NDLS,

There's a lot of good stuff happening at the law school this week. You should check it out.

Cheers.

If you would like to submit something to the MMU, please click the link at the bottom of this email or send an email with all event details to mondaymorningupdate@gmail.com.

Hey, do this nice thing for someone.

From Michele Talos of the Admissions Office:

I ride the shuttle from Compton's parking lot to the law school. Our shuttle driver, Margaret, is having a knee replacement on January 31st. Some of us are setting up some ways to help her during this time. If any students are interested in helping or receiving update emails during her time off, please contact me...

The Notre Dame Chapter of the National Lawyers Guild will hold its First Annual Disorientation Series January 24-26. Disorientation is the signature event held annually by all NLG Chapters, aimed at provoking law students to challenge traditional notions of how they can practice law and advance justice. All law students, undergraduates, and community members are invited. Check out the events below.

Who's That 1L?

That's Emma Kelly!

Emma is from New Jersey and studied neuroscience at the University of Pennsylvania.

She has attended twenty Bruce Springsteen concerts in her life. That's roughly seventy hours of her life that has been spent watching The Boss perform. She still needs an additional five hours to meet the New Jersey state-mandated minimum Springsteen watching hours requirement.

Anyway, she seems cool and has a cute dog, so buy her some coffee this week.
